Champagne

The History of champagne dates back to the 17th century when bubbles accidentally appeared in bottles of fermenting wine. That's right, this celebrated beverage first began in Champagne, France as a science experiment, but they have become one of the great apertifs to begin a meal.

Chardonnay

Chardonnay has many flavors commonly associated with the grape being derived from such influences as terroir and oak. It is made in many different styles, from the lean, crisply mineral wines of Chablis, France to New World wines with tropical fruit flavors and lots of oak.

Pinot Noir

"God made Cabernet Sauvignon whereas the devil made Pinot noir." This varietal is exceptionally difficult to grow, but when made at a world class level it produces complexity and nuance that is unlike any other varietal.
