MEURSAULT

Meursault is most known for its white wine made from calcareous soil rich in iron and magnesium. The best vineyard is Les Perrières followed by Les Genevrière and Les Charmes. The soil in Les Perrières is the lightest and stoniest, therefore the wines are very minerally and long lived. The wines from Les Charmes are considered the fattest and richest. These wines are very fragrant and drink well in their youth. Les Genevrière has the opulence of Les Charmes and some of the steeliness of Les Perrières. The best producers are Comte Lafon, Coche Dury, and Jean Marc Roulot.

MONTRACHET

Puligny-Montrachet is the greatest white wine-producing commune in the world. The greatest vineyards lie at the southern end of the town, overlapping Chassagne-Montrachet. Even though the vineyards are smaller compared to Chassagne-Montrachet and Meursault, it is a place of pilgrimage for many wine lovers and Chardonnay producers who try to imitate Puligny's Terroir.

Chassagne-Montrachet is the last great commune in the Côte d'Or. White wines from from this commune demand higher prices than any other. The wines from Chassagne-Montrachet are the most distinctive. They are bold and powerful like Puligny-Montrachet, but have a softer and rounder texture.

GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN

The historic town of Gevrey-Chambertin is known for producing the most powerful wines in Burgundy. Power, muscle, and rich, jammy fruit – tending to start compact and needing time to unfold broadly – characterize these wines. In recent years this commune has seen a number of excellent “new” domains. Some of these new producers include Denis Mortet, Geantet-Pansiot, and Claude Dugat.

MOREY-ST.-DENIS

The wines from the village of Morey-St.-Denis are often described as being lighter than Gevrey-Chambertin and firmer than Chambolle-Musigny, depending on which side of the village the vineyard is located. Geologically these vineyards are very rich in minerals. The Grand Cru vineyards, moving southwards from the border with Gevrey-Chambertin, include Clos de la Roche, Clos St.-Denis, Clos des Lambrays (entirely owned by Domaine des Lambrays) and Clos de Tart. Fine wines from Domaine Dujac, Robert Groffier, Hubert Lignier, and Christophe Roumier are giving Morey-St.-Denis the recognition it has long merited.

CHAMBOLLE-MUSIGNY

Wines from Chambolle-Musigny are supposed to be the most charming in the Côte de Nuits. A fine Chambolle has a rich, velvety elegance that rivals the finesse of Vosne Romanée or the power of Gevrey-Chambertin. There are only two Grand Crus (Bonnes-Mares and Musigny) in this village, and some exceptional Premier Crus (Les Amoureuses and Les Fuées) worthy of promotion. These chalky vineyards give the wines higher acidity and elegance which expresses itself in aromatic purity and finesse without the power. A fine red Musigny "is a combination of seductive power and unrepentant aristocracy with an extraordinary spectrum of aromas...crushed strawberries and liquorice." Fully mature after 10-15 years, it is often the quintessence of finesse, and--from a great vintage--an unforgettable experience. Bonnes-Mares is considered the stepbrother of Musigny; it is often sturdier and less graceful than Musigny.

The top producers are Comte Georges de Vogüé, Domaine Dujac, Christophe Roumier, Robert Groffier, Leroy, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier, and Joseph Drouhin.

VOUGEOT

Cistercian monks established the Grand Cru vineyard Clos de Vougeot in 1100. The Clos' fifty hectares are now in the hands of 82 different owners. Clos de Vougeot is one of the few Grand Crus where the location of the vines within the vineyard really matter. Among the best producers are Leroy, Jean Grivot, Anne Gros, Méo-Camuzet, and Hudelot-Noellat.

VOSNE-ROMANÉE

Perhaps the most representative examples of Pinot Noir in the world come from this commune. Stylistically the wines lie between the sturdy Gevrey and the delicate Chambolle-Musigny. These wines are often described as opulent, silky, and satiny. Vosne's Grand Crus are capable of producing quintessential Burgundies with amazing depth and refinement. The Grand Crus range from Romanée St.-Vivant, the lightest in body but very aromatic, to Richebourg, the most massive and richest. These are considered to be some of the most long-lived wines in Burgundy. Even though most of these Grand Cru vineyards are fairly close to each other, the flavor profiles vary widely. Amongst the best producers are Domain de la Romanée-Conti, Henri Jayer, Domaine Leroy, Anne Gros, Emmanuel Rouget, and Mongeard Mugneret.

NUITS-ST.-GEORGES

Nuits-St.-Georges is the longest commune in the Côte d'Or, extending for some five kilometers. Many tasters characterize Nuits as "earthy" and "rustic." There is often a granular feel about fine, young Nuits. They might have a touch of the maverick, but the robust charm of leather and gamey flavors are no less alluring. The great producers are Henri Gouges, Chevillon, Domain de l'Arlet, and Leroy.
